1961, No. 68

An Act to make provision in connection with the attainment of independence by the people of Western Samoa

[24 November 1961

WHEREAS at the date of the passing of this Act the Government of New Zealand is the administering authority for the Territory of Western Samoa under the Trusteeship Agreement for that Territory approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations on the thirteenth day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-six: And whereas the Trusteeship Agreement will terminate on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-two, and Western Samoa will thereupon become a fully independent sovereign State under the name of the Independent State of Western Samoa having a constitution which has been adopted by the people of Western Samoa: And whereas it is expedient that provision be made declaring that Her Majesty shall have no jurisdiction over the Independent State of Western Samoa on and after the date on which the termination of the Trusteeship Agreement takes effect and for the repeal or amendment of such of the laws of New Zealand as would be incompatible with the status of Western Samoa as a fully independent sovereign State:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Western Samoa Act 1961.

2. Commencement—(1) Except where this Act otherwise provides, this Act shall come into force at the hour of eleven o'clock in the evening on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-two, being the time in New Zealand corresponding to the commencement of the first day of January, nineteen hundred and sixty-two, in Western Samoa (that date being the date appointed by the General Assembly of the United Nations for the termination of the Trusteeship Agreement for the Territory of Western Samoa).

(2) The period of twenty-four hours following the commencement of this Act is hereinafter referred to as Independence Day.

3. Independence of Western Samoa—It is hereby declared that on and after Independence Day Her Majesty in right of New Zealand shall have no jurisdiction over the Independent State of Western Samoa.

4. Future New Zealand Acts not to be in force in Western Samoa—No Act of the Parliament of New Zealand passed on or after Independence Day or passed before Independence Day and coming into force on or after Independence Day shall be in force in Western Samoa.

5. New Zealand law to apply as if Western Samoa a member of the Commonwealth—On and after Independence Day all law for the time being in force in New Zealand—that is to say, all law whether it is a rule of law or a provision of an Act of any Parliament or a provision of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever—shall, subject to any express provision to the contrary in that law, and unless express provision to the contrary is subsequently made by the authority having power to alter that law, have the same operation in relation to the Independent State of Western Samoa as it would have if the Independent State of Western Samoa were part of Her Majesty's dominions and a member of the Commonwealth.

6. Citizens of Western Samoa not required to register as aliens—The Aliens Act 1948 is hereby amended by inserting, before section 6 and under the heading "Registration", the following section:

"5A. In sections 6 to 13 of this Act the term 'alien' does not include a citizen of the Independent State of Western Samoa."

7. Abolition of appeals and cases stated to Supreme Court—
(1) On and after Independence Day the Supreme Court of New Zealand shall have no jurisdiction to hear or determine any appeal from any Court in Western Samoa or any case stated by any Court in Western Samoa.

(2) Every appeal to the Supreme Court of New Zealand from the High Court of Western Samoa and every case stated by the High Court of Western Samoa for determination by the Supreme Court of New Zealand which is pending on Independence Day shall abate on that day.

8. Ordinances not invalid on ground of repugnancy with certain New Zealand Acts and regulations—(1) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 32 of the Samoa Amendment Act 1957, no Ordinance of the Legislative Assembly of Western Samoa and no provision of any such Ordinance shall be void or inoperative on the ground that it is repugnant to any provision of any enactment specified in the First Schedule to this Act, and for the purposes of that section the enactments so specified shall be deemed not to be reserved enactments.

(2) Every Ordinance of the Legislative Assembly of Western Samoa passed before the date of the passing of this Act which would have been valid if this section had been in force when the Ordinance was passed is hereby declared to be valid.

(3) This section shall come into force on the date of the passing of this Act.

9. Enactments amended—The enactments specified in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.

10. Repeals, revocations, and savings—(1) The enactments specified in the Third Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed.

(2) The regulations, rules, orders, and notices specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act are hereby revoked.

(3) On and after Independence Day the Western Samoa Order in Council 1920* made by His late Majesty with the advice of the Privy Council on the eleventh day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty, shall cease to have effect.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal or amendment or revocation of any enactment by this Act,—

(a) The provisions of subsections (4) to (7) of section 75 of the Samoa Act 1921 shall continue to apply, as if this Act had not been passed, with respect to any memorial under that section filed in the Supreme Court of New Zealand before Independence Day:

(b) Every reception order made pursuant to section 328 of the Samoa Act 1921 with respect to any person who is subject to such an order immediately before Independence Day shall continue in full force and effect:

(c) The Controller and Auditor-General may continue to exercise and perform all powers and functions conferred on him under any such enactment until the duties imposed on him by that enactment have been completed in respect of any period before Independence Day, and for that purpose every such enactment shall be deemed to continue in force as if this Act had not been passed:

(d) The provisions of the British Nationality and New Zealand Citizenship Act 1948 shall apply with respect to every application received under that Act before Independence Day for registration as a New Zealand citizen or for a certificate of naturalisation as if this Act had not been passed.
