The Associated Organisation status is valid as from the date of signature of the application form for the actual calendar year upon receipt of the first annual associated organisation fee. The payment of the annual fee is due in January each year after the receipt of an invoice from REHVA via email. The associated organisation status is renewed automatically each year.

The associated organisation status can be terminated by a duly signed notice letter sent to the info@rehva.eu email address not later than 1st December of each calendar year. The termination is valid from the following calendar year.
